

Service Report for Fiscal Year 2011-2012

SCAN Program

*23 schools served

*3,786 students

Teen Moms

*4 clients, plus 1 dads, in Loudon County. Pre and Post-test show an 90% level of comprehension of information presented, as compared to testing prior to course.

*5 clients in Meigs County. Pre and Post-test show a 100% level of comprehension of information presented, as compared to testing prior to course.

Agency Satisfaction Survey Summary - Clients

*221 Agency surveys collected

*More than 85% Agency surveys "strongly agree" with the CAC's ability to provide services in a timely manner, professionalism, improving the condition of the victims in our community, providing a child-friendly environment and improving relationships with community partners.

Collaborator Surveys - Community Partners

*99% strongly agree services are delivered in a timely manner

*99% strongly agree staff is professional

*97% strongly agree the CAC works to improve conditions of victims in our community

*100% strongly agree the CAC is child-friendly agency

*98% strongly agree the CAC worked collaboratively with our agency to improve the conditions of victims in our community

Client Services

*499 clients served, including 150 drug-endangered children (DEC)

*81% of victims were between 3-12 years of age

*48% of children were abused by immediate family members

*23% of children were abused by parent's paramour or other known person

*66% of the victims we served were abused sexually

*57% of the victims were female

*950 Therapy Sessions, more than 80% show rate

*345 Forensic Interviews

*8 Forensic Medical Examinations

Training Opportunities provided to our CPIT members and made possible by GNS:

*Lenoir City Police Department: "The Prevention of Child Sexual Abuse"

42 officers trained

(over)

Lunch and Learn: CAC 101 to new caseworkers and law enforcement
7 caseworkers and detectives

Loudon County Sheriff's Office: "The Prevention of Child Sexual Abuse"
55 officers trained

Perpetrators of Shaken Baby Syndrome" - webinar hosted by the CAC
10 CPIT members including law enforcement and Dept. of Children's Services workers

Eastern Tennessee Child Advocacy Centers and their Child Protective Investigative Teams Training: "Everyday Heroes" Serving Victims of Child Abuse; January 19th and 20th, 2012
22 CPIT members attended with all counties represented

District-wide Child Protective Investigative Team Training: "Heart of the Matter"; March 15- 16th, 2012
63 CPIT members; with representation from each county, every discipline and one Judge attending as well! The conference agenda has been included in the proposal.

Connecting for Children's Justice (Nashville, TN), November 20th thru November 22, 2012
22 CPIT members from across the district, most in attendance in history of this conference. The speakers from across the United States and more than 120 sessions